INTRODUCTION

The Institute of Medical Education (IME) at the Jinnah Sindh Medical University (JSMU) is proud to offer a carefully designed program to suit the needs of health-related institutions across Pakistan and beyond. Graduates of this program will be able to work efficiently as team members and lead the departments of health professions, where required. The MHPE program will be offered to all healthcare professionals and is a thesis-based degree with 50 Credit hours.

The MHPE program targets audience in and out of Pakistan in order to spread the expertise of medical education in the region around Pakistan. In Karachi, at the moment, there are already two program of Health Professions Education offered by Dow University of Health Sciences (DUHS) and Aga Khan University (AKU). These programs are insufficient to meet the needs of Sindh Province. JSMU is a public sector university and aims to bring an improvement in medical education particularly in the province of Sindh.

MISSION OF THE MHPE PROGRAM

The program endeavors to develop a cadre of professionals capable of improving the quality of the existing undergraduate, postgraduate and CME programs in health professional institutions, conducting educational research and leading sustainable evidence-based innovations where and when required. The ultimate goal is to enhance the quality of the graduates and health care delivery.

OUTCOMES

By the end of the program, candidates should be able to

- Work effectively as a health professions educationist
- Conduct research based on national and international guidelines
- Develop evidence-based documents to support educational change and innovations.
- Communicate effectively with policy makers, accreditation and licensing bodies, academic leadership, educational managers, seniors, juniors and peers

TEACHING METHODOLOGIES

A diverse set of teaching methodologies will be employed, including:

- Assignments
- Collaborative learning
- Flipped classrooms
- Group work
- Independent learning
- Lectures
- On-line sessions
- Presentations
- Seminars
- Team-based learning
- Workshops

The entire 2.5-year MHPE program has 5 contact sessions, each of maximum 15 days. It is mandatory for all program participants to attend the face-to-face sessions. Missing such sessions or a few days of it will entail attending the missed days and sessions with the junior batch in order to maintain a minimally acceptable GPA. The contact sessions will be scheduled twice a year.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment will be done on multiple occasions. Students will be required to pass all courses as per JSMU policy. Each course has two components:

- a. Assessments during contact sessions. These will make up 30% of the total course marks.
- b. Course assignments. These will make up 70% of the total course marks.

Candidates have to pass each of these components separately in order to be declared as pass in every course.

PROGRESSION

For every candidate to proceed from year one to year two, it is mandatory to obtain a CGPA of minimum 3.0 at the end of year one. It is also possible for candidates to opt out of the MHPE program at the end of the first year. Candidates who have a CGPA of less than 3.0 or who wish to opt out, will be given a letter of successful completion of the first-year courses.

EXAMINATION REGULATIONS

General Regulations: General University Examinations regulations on registration for examination, eligibility for examinations, absence from examination, irregularities, procedures for appeals and preservation of scripts will remain as stipulated in the Institute of Medical Education (IME) Jinnah Sindh Medical University.

A CGPA of 3 out of 4 or higher, calculated through aggregate grades of all the courses taken for the MHPE, is required for the candidates to appear for their thesis defence. In case of a lower GPA, candidates will have to do a remedial for the course/s with lower grades. If a candidate gets a C in two or more courses, then he/she will have to do remedial assignments. A maximum of two retakes are allowed per course. If a candidate is unable to pass in those attempts s/he will be given a certificate of participation and will not be eligible for an MHPE degree.

The grading of the marks will be as per the table given below
