

Student council organized All Pakistan Parliamentary debate & Declamation contest

The Jinnah Sindh Medical University Public Speaking Society held its first ever the All-Pakistan JSMU Open Trilingual Parliamentary Debate and Declamation Competition. Official teams from prestigious institutions all over Pakistan including AKU, LUMS, DUHS, NUST Islamabad and GCU Lahore participated in the 4 day event, as well as some international representatives of institutions such as John Hopkins University, London School of Economics and UWC Costa Rica.

Among the Honorable judges for the event were Dr. Najeeb us Saqlain, Idrees Ghazi and Dr. Sher Mehrani.

The 1st prize in all 3 language categories of the Declamation Competition went to Karachi University as well as the team trophy.

The Parliamentary Debate competition was bilingual and was won by Government College University Lahore in the Urdu category. While a private team consisting of students from LUMS Lahore and UWC Costa Rica won the English event.

